DESIGN THINKING

as an Approach in Teaching

Are you curious about Design Thinking as a teaching and learning approach and are you interested in getting some practical insight into how Design Thinking can work in a teaching context? Then join the I&E Teachers Network for a Design Thinking Workshop on 4 June 2019.

The I&E Teachers Network has invited associate professor Suna Løwe Nielsen (SDU) to give us an introduction to Design Thinking and to facilitate a Design Thinking appetizer workshop. The aim of the workshop is to give you an insight into the Design Thinking process and Design Thinking teaching methods.

You can learn more about Design Thinking at UCPH's I&E Toolbox.
